

Employment Security Checks

To insure that individual who are library employees or volunteers are well qualified to be productive and successful, it is the policy of the library to perform criminal record checks. No employment data will be released without a written authorization and release signed by the individual who is the subject of the inquiry. All employees or volunteers under the age of 18 are exempt.