TALK TO A LAWYER

- FREE -

Monday, January 19
9 AM - 5 PM

The Indiana State Bar Association & NWI Volunteer Lawyers Inc. present the 13th annual public service event honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and his dream of access to justice for all. As a service to the public, volunteer lawyers will be available to answer your legal questions and give brief (10-15 minutes) legal consultations.

No appointment is necessary. To talk to a lawyer, sign in at the reference desk and you will be helped in turn.

Can't make it in? You can talk with an attorney by calling 1-800-266-2581, 8 AM - 4 PM. (January 19 only). Phone calls will be answered in the order received. No calls to attorneys can be taken at the library.

Introducing "Ellie", an Elephants Tale

"Ellie's Adventure", by 16-year-old Emily Teubert, a home-schooled Lowell student, won first place in a young adult writing contest sponsored by The Friends of the Lowell Public Library. A photo of a baby elephant taken at the David Sheldrick's Elephant Orphanage in Kenya, Africa by Friends member Linda Steinberg, was the inspiration for the contest sponsored by the Friends.

Joining Emily's name on a banner across the windows at the circulation desk are those of second place winners Sami Stegenga for his story, "Ellie and Phaunt's Adventure" and Henry Riegger for his story, "Beef," plus thirteen other honorable mentions.
