

"The Great Book Sale"

Presented by

Friends of the Library

A mouse would have trouble finding space in the closets at the Lowell Public Library. Every nook and cranny is crowded with books destined for a new home as it will be placed in the Friends of the Library's annual "Lowell's Biggest Book Sale."

Thousands upon thousands of bargains will be waiting in the library's meeting room and foyer for book lovers of all ages.

Novels of adventure, romance and drama will crowd the tables. Mystery stories from the most popular authors will be there by the hundreds. Cooking, craft, health and exercise, antique collecting, biography, science fiction, history, short stories, art, music, sports, this potpourri of subjects is a book lover's dream.

In the children's section of the sale, hundreds of fiction and non-fiction will provide hours of entertainment and learning at little cost.

Young adults can also find stories of romance, adventure, and human interest in the Young Adult section of the sale.

The library has placed over 30 art prints in the sale as well as records and cassettes.

Paperbacks by the hundreds will line the walls. Magazines: National Geographic, Glamour, Good Housekeeping, Motor Trend, Popular Mechanics, Parents, Ladies' Home Journal, House Beautiful, Better Homes & Gardens and several other varieties of periodicals will be on sale in the library foyer.

Volunteers helping to set up the meeting room Wednesday, November 1 from 10 AM to 10 PM can take advantage of the super bargains at that time. To register for the pre-sale contact the library at 696-7704.

Book sale hours are:

Thursday, November 2 - 10 AM to 8 PM

Friday, November 3 - 10 AM to 5 PM

Saturday, November 4 - 10 AM to 4 PM

Book prices are 10¢ to 25 ¢ each on most books.

Proceeds from the sale will be donated to the library for special purchases.
