A HAUNTING GOOD TIME

Are there really ghosts? Friends of the Library had a haunting good time looking for some ghostly spirits in Chicago last month. They traveled by bus with famed ghost hunter Richard Crowe who entertained the Friends with tales from the other side! They looked for the ghost of Clarence Darrow at the Museum of Science and Industry, and John Dillinger's ghost at the Biograph Theater. They visited the site of the the great Eastland Disaster, and Oprah Winfrey's studio, which is also said to be haunted.

While ghosthunting, Friends enjoyed the sites and sounds of the Windy City and. They dined at the famous Billy Goat and for those of you who are Saturday Night Live fans...yes they dined on "Cheeseburger, Cheeseburger!"

NEW FACES

We welcome new staff members Phyllis Nelson and Lynn Nuss. Phyllis is head of Technical and Circulation Services. Orginally from Dell Rapids, South Dakota, Phyllis received a B.S. Degree at South Dakota State University and an M.A. at Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana. She earned a Masters Degree in Library Science at Indiana University. Phyllis recently moved to Lowell.

Lynn will soon become a familiar face to patrons as she assists them on the circulation desk. She is a Thayer resident and is expecting her first grandchild any day now.
