Events and Happenings January 2020

Talk to a Lawyer Day

Monday, January 20 9-5 PM

As a FREE service to the public, volunteer lawyers from the Indiana State Bar Association will be available to answer legal questions and give brief (10-15 minutes) legal consultations at the Lowell Public Library, 9 AM - 5 PM.

This is the Bar's 19th annual public service event honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and the dream of access to justice for all. FREE consultations will be held in the study rooms in the reference area of the library. No pre-registration. First come, first served.

Can't make it in? Phone calls to Indianapolis attorneys (ENGLISH ONLY: 800-266-2581) will be answered in the order received, 8 AM-4 PM CST January 20 only.

We are now offering World Books Online encyclopedia. You'll find the World Books link under the Learn tab on our home page. You can access all four modules (Early Learning, Kids, Student, and World Book Timelines) from inside the library; a library card number is required to access them from home.

World Book Early Learning content includes stories, games, videos and guided reading for beginning readers.

World Book Kids features hundreds of fun activities, hands-on science projects, age-appropriate articles, and vibrant images tailored to engage elementary school age learners.

World Book Student, for middle schoolers and up, includes current events, a citation builder, maps and atlases, and biographies.

Create your own timeline with World Book Timelines, or use one of the existing under categories such as literature, sports, the arts, people etc.

Explore World Book Online from our home page at www.lowellpl.lib.in.us.
