March is National Disability Awareness Month

This year's theme is Cultivate Inclusion. "To help beautify your community, start by planting the seeds of understanding. When you appreciate the unique gifts inside people of all abilities, everyone grows." (Source: The Indiana Governor's Council for People with Disabilities. Visit their website at <http://www.indianadisabilityawareness.org>).

Learning American Sign Language is one way you can be a part of Disability Awareness Month. Join us each Thursday in March at 6 PM and learn the basics of American Sign Language (ASL). This FREE, five-week class will be taught by Mark Adams. All ages are invited to attend. Please pre-register at the circulation desk. Call Debbie at the library at 696-7704 for further information.

Friends of the Library

Why join? Have your children ever participated in summer reading programs? Has your family attended library sponsored programs? Have you ever borrowed a large print book, a CD, or a book on tape? Have you used our copy machine? If you can answer yes to any of these, you have benefited from the generosity of the Friends of the Library. Join today and have fun helping the library!

The Friends will hold their regular meeting at 6 PM on Wednesday, March 16. New members are always welcome to attend.

Any living published writer who was born in Indiana or has lived in Indiana for at least five consecutive years is eligible. Winning authors receive cash prizes of between $5,000 to $10,000 and will be able to designate their hometown Indiana libraries as the recipients of $2500.00 grants!

Further information, nomination forms, and the complete set of guidelines are available until March 25 at the Lowell Public Library or at: <http://www.indianaauthorsaward.org>
