

LOWELL LIBRARY LINES

A PUBLICATION OF THE LOWELL PUBLIC LIBRARY

APRIL, 1989

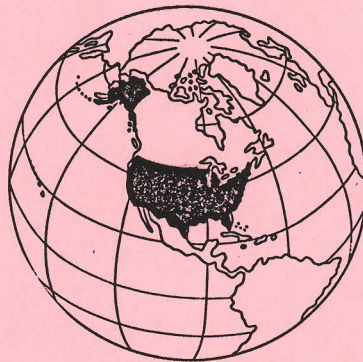

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK • APRIL 9-15 1989

"All that mankind has done,
thought, gained or been,
it is lying as in magic preservation in the pages of books." -Ibsen

Books

Art

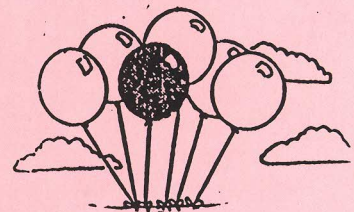

Videos

Programs

Music

Newspapers

Ask A Professional.

Ask Your Librarian.

CELEBRATE NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

WITH US!

The Lowell Public Library will join more than 200 public libraries across Indiana to celebrate National Library Week.

Activities at the Lowell Public Library include "Open House" with cookies and coffee, an adult and children's drawing, "Name the Library Mascot" Contest, a reference display, and a children's program, "Information Station."

Reference

1. My car is a "lemon." Do you have a fix-it book? See Chilton's Auto Repair Manual, 629.22
2. My dog, Cujo, runs after cars. What can I do? See "The Good Dog Book" by Siegal 636.7
3. Good Grief! Spring is here and I am out of shape. HELP! See "Everyday with Richard Simmons" on video.
4. Boxelder bugs! Fleas! Ants! Spiders! How can I get rid of them? See "Controlling household pests" Ortho Books, 635.9
5. Dreaded Taxes! I don't understand the "Tax Reform Bill of 1986." See "How to Benefit from Tax Reform" on video.
6. When I take my medicine I see spots before my eyes. Why? See "Prescription Drugs: Consumer Guide" at 636.7

STAFF NOTES

Representing our library at the Southlake Mall Reading Exposition was staff member, Patty Ernst.

We are pleased to welcome new staff member, Nanette Anderson.

Library Literacy Co-Ordinator, Nell Fabish, and Craig Turpin, Director of the Lowell Adult Learning Center, addressed current affairs class at the Lowell Senior High School on the subject of illiteracy in America: What we can do!

