JUNE 2000

Club Members to Catch the Reading Express

"All Aboard the Reading Railroad!" Open to toddlers, pre-schoolers and children who have just completed third grade, the Summer Reading Club Program at the library and its Shelby and Schneider branches promises to be an eventful two months of vacation fun that will begin on Monday, June 12.

Making crafts and playing Railroad Bingo are just some of the fun activities children will enjoy at Summer Reading Club. Special events include the Horgash Puppeteers Performance, the Great Pet Show and the Reading Railroad Carnival.

Lead by the Quirate family, the beautiful Parade Quarter Horses of Mi Ranchito will demonstrate their performing style at the library. Shelby and Schneider Club members can visit with veterinarian and wild animal specialist Dr. Herbert Hardwick of the Hebron Animal Clinic. It's always exciting to see the many wild animals that Dr. Hardwick brings for his wildlife program.

This summer Young Adults, beginning the fifth grade through high school, can register for the YA's "Ride the Reading Railroad Contest." Lots of prizes and great reads await the contestants and they can also test their game skills at a Monopoly Tournament. Be the first to register for all the fun that begins on June 12.

A Gift for the Future

Perpetuity means forever. You have an opportunity to give a gift to the Lowell Public Library that will last more than a day, a month, a year, 10 years, 100 years; your gift will keep on giving in perpetuity—forever! "How can this be?" you ask.

The Lowell Public Library Endowment fund (LPLEF) will accept your gift and hold the principal in perpetuity, forever. Your gift will earn interest each year. Only the interest portion of your gift can be applied toward the needs of the Lowell Public Library. It gets better... Through LPLEF's affiliation with Legacy Foundation, our fund will receive a match of $1.00 for every $2.00 donated by September 1, 2000. Your donation will grow almost from the instant it is received!

It gets even better...Consult your certified financial planner, CPA, estate planner, lawyer or tax advisor to find out the tax benefits you can receive for yourself, courtesy of Uncle Sam. You may donate cash, insurance policies, securities, property, and other marketable items. Your advisor can give you further details. You can be a friend of the Lowell Public Library forever!
