READING KEEPS YOU SHARP

Hundreds of smiling children will soon be at the library and its branches to sign up for this year's Summer Reading Club program Reading Keeps You Sharp. The eight week program for children preschool age through the fifth grade is designed to encourage reading and to avoid the "summer slide." The program, which will begin Monday, June 9, is filled with fun-packed activities including weekly crafts, a mini-carnival and a grand finale — Dave DiNaso's Traveling World of Reptiles!

Tues. June 10	Shark Bait	Thurs. June 19	Penguins
Thurs. June 12	Bingo for Prizes	Tues. June 24	Book Walk
Tues. June 17	Shark Car	Thurs. June 26	Shark Bread

There are two sessions for each program – 10:30 AM and 1:30 PM. Children must be pre-registered and preschoolers must be accompanied by an adult. Sign-ups begin Monday, June 9.

Thousands of artists, tens of thousands of albums, and hundreds of thousands of songs are available to registered cardholders of the Lowell Public Library and its Shelby and Schneider branches.

Through Freegal, a downloadable music service, the library can patrons access to the Sony Music Entertainment Catalog, that offers over one hundred genres of music without having to download special software or dealing with any digital rights management (DRM) issues. The content is based upon a license with Sony Music Entertainment, owner of fifty-four different music labels.

To access Freegal, pick up an application form at the library and turn it in at the circulation desk or download one from the library's website. Look for the Freegal link on the left side of the page. An email message will be sent your address within 24 hours of being registered.
