SUMMER READING CLUB PROGRAM

Dive In!

"The Readings GREAT!"

Look out below! The hungry sharks are circling the waters. Beneath the waves greedy octopi, their tentacles outstretched, grab hold of the books that represent "Dive In! The Reading's GREAT".

The Summer Reading Club Program at the Lowell Public Library and the Shelby and Schneider Branches is about to begin!

The ocean motif is planned to stimulate the children's interest in reading. The circling "sharks", each one placed in the sea by a club member who has read ten books, will be "fed" a new "fish" for every ten additional books read.

Exciting adventures await our deep sea divers over the summer months with programs and activities to chase away any summer doldrums.

Monday, June 10th is the first day for children to register and check out books. It is also the first day they can purchase books of their very own from the "Children's Book Fair" that will take place during the week of June 10-17 at the Lowell Public Library and its branches. Lowell's Summer Reading Club activities are as follows:
