

LOWELL LIBRARY LINES

A PUBLICATION OF THE LOWELL PUBLIC LIBRARY

JULY, 1988

SHELBY BRANCH LIBRARY
TO HAVE
GRAND OPENING

The Grand Opening of the Shelby Branch of the Lowell Public Library will take place:

Sunday, July 10
1 to 3 PM
St. Theresa's Church
23311 Shelby Road
Shelby

Doug Linz, noted country and contemporary musician, will entertain. Refreshments will be served. Library staff will be available to answer questions and conduct tours of the new facility. The public is invited.

BOOKS, VIDEOS, AND CAMERAS, TOO?

A little-known service of the Lowell library can be useful during vacation time. Two 600 series one-step Polaroid Land Cameras are available for a one-week loan period.

A $5.00 deposit is required and patrons must supply their own film. When the camera is returned in good condition, in the special carrying case, $4.00 of the deposit money will be given back.

Don't be "camera shy" about the camera. Call the Lowell Public Library 696-7704 for details.

- WHAT'S HAPPENING -

Independence Day

Monday, July 4th

Library and Branches closed for holiday.

Blood Pressure and Diabetes Testing

Lowell Library

Thursday, July 14, 10 AM to 12 noon
1 PM to 3 PM

The Lake County Health Dept. will conduct testing for citizens of all ages. No charge.

Library Board

Lowell Library Meeting Room

Wednesday, July 13, 7:30 PM

Shelby Branch Open House

Shelby Branch

Sunday, July 10, 1 to 3 PM

Refreshments, music, balloons, and good times will make this celebration a true "Grand Opening."

SIGN LANGUAGE CLASSES IN JULY

Sarah Scheckel, a senior student at Ball State University majoring in education for the deaf, will conduct a two-part workshop to teach American Sign Language for the deaf. The course will cover letters, symbols, and the special communication problems encountered by deaf people.

No date has been confirmed for the course, as yet. Please call the Lowell Library, 696-7704, for further information.